

Closed Caption Compliance Certification

I, JEROME CLONINGER ("Programmer") certify that 3B Outdoors (Seasons 8 - Present) (the "Programming"), a 30-MINUTE television program provided to Networks, Stations, Agencies, Television Service Providers, and YouTube ("Distributors") for the intent of broadcast, complies with the closed captioning requirements of the Federal Communications Commission (47 C.F.R. § 79.1), including the captioning quality requirements, or will, as broadcast by the Distributors, be exempt from those requirements. Programmer further certifies that (select all that apply):

- The programming provided by Programmer satisfies the caption quality standards set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 79.1(j)(2).
- In the ordinary course of business, Programmer has adopted and follows the Best Practices set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 79.1(k)(1).
- Programmer is exempt from the closed captioning rules under one or more properly claimed exemptions, which are specified below:

Programmer agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to protect, save, defend, and Distributors, and its corporate parent and affiliates, and each of their officers, directors, employees, and agents, harmless and indemnify them from and against any and all losses, damages, liabilities, or expenses of any nature whatsoever, including reasonable attorneys' fees, in connection with any investigation, inquiry, or enforcement action by the FCC involving the Programming or any threatened or actual private claim or action involving the Programming with the exception that the Programming has been quality checked by the Distributors and verified that the closed captions are displayed prior to broadcast. Programmer and the owner(s) of Programming are not liable for any damages resulting from any playback errors during the broadcast of the Programming by Distributors OR any viewer's incompatible equipment or improper settings of their equipment.
